Interests

- ◎ Volunteering
- ◎ Drawing
- ◎ Photography
- ◎ Snowboarding

My journey

I am a self-taught web developer with little experience in web design.

I studied psychology for four years and during that time I have volunteered in several organizations. That experience taught me to become a dedicated, adaptable, and loyal worker.

In addition to my technical skills, I am a critical thinker, good at analyzing and solving problems. I tend to continuously improve myself.
